

Stop the energy escape from your home

Energy Tips You may already be doing things to save energy around your home. Here are some simple & inexpensive ways to help you save even more.

1. Close your fireplace damper when the fireplace isn't in use.
2. Use ventilation fans only as long as necessary.
3. Lower your thermostat setting during winter to 68 degrees.
4. Raise your thermostat setting in summer to 78 degrees.
5. Repair leaky faucets, especially those supplying hot water.
6. Install low-flow shower heads.
7. Clean your refrigerator coils.
8. Run the dishwasher only when it's full.
9. Wash clothes in cold water.
10. Raise and lower window coverings to allow heat in during cold weather and keep heat out during hot weather.
11. Change to compact fluorescent light bulbs, especially for lights you use frequently and for long periods of time.
12. Seal window leaks around your home.
13. Caulk and weather strip around pipes, ducts, and vents.

SPECIAL LIMITED WARRANTY FOR ENERGY SAVINGS

Heartland provides, to the original homeowner only, a limited energy-savings warranty on its Super Polymer Thermal Siding for the first 12-month period after the Super Polymer Thermal Siding is installed. If the cost of heating and cooling the home for the first 12-months after installation is not at least 20% lower than the previous 12-months, Heartland will make up the difference, up to a maximum of $500, at the average cost for gas and electricity for the previous calendar year. The cost of heating water, operating temperature maintained pools, hot tubs and any home devices except heating and cooling units are excluded from the computation. This limited energy-savings warranty for Heartland Super Polymer Siding also assumes full home siding coverage and no excessive leaving of windows and doors open, or extensive usage of fireplaces. Heartland shall be the sole authority on the applicability of this limited warranty.
